RULES AND REGULATIONS

Entries in all departments may be made early at the office OR BY MAIL!

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

All rules pertaining to department and classes appearing in the premium lists take precedence over the general rules.

Rules governing entries will be enforced at the discretion of the Director in charge to facilitate handling of exhibits.

Any person or persons desiring to exhibit will confer a favor upon the management by carefully reading the rules and acting accordingly. Such membership tickets will be available to residents of Tuscarawas County only and the last day for the sale of the membership tickets will be Sept. 22nd. Admission prices: $5.00 for three years & up. Senior Citizens (60 & over) $3.00. Does not include rides or parking. Uniformed men and women of any branch of defensive service will be admitted free at the gates and grandstand at any time. Parking on the fair grounds will be $5.00.

2. ENTRIES

All entries will close Friday, August 9, 2019. All payments are due with entry forms.

All persons or members of their families who have purchased membership tickets may make entries without change except as otherwise specified. Non-residents of the county may secure such privilege by purchase of non-resident exhibitor's tickets.

Any agent or exhibitor showing disrespect for officials or misrepresenting, in regard to entries in any department, either by statements made or facts omitted, will forfeit the right to exhibit and no premiums will be paid.

A fee of 10 percent of the first premium will be collected as an entry fee on all entries of livestock except where otherwise noted in the premium list. The fee must be paid to the secretary at the time of entry.

The Society reserves the right to return or reject entries. ALL ENTRIES IN FARM, GARDEN, ORCHARD, PLANT FLOWER DEPARTMENTS AND THE FINE ARTS MUST BE GROWN OR MADE BY THE EXHIBITOR.

Exhibit entries must be made in writing on entry blanks furnished by the Society, one of which may be found in the premium list, and on request to the secretary, others will be furnished. The name of the exhibitor, his address, and the department class premium number and description of the article shall appear at the proper place on the entry blank. The Fair Board reserves the right to close entries any time a specific department becomes full.

3. WHEN, WHERE TO MAKE ENTRIES

(all entries should be made early)

Entry blanks must be filled out and mailed to the Secretary's office at the fair grounds before the day designated for the entries to close.

Entries may be made at any time after June 1, 2019. Call the office for extended July & August hours. All entries close Friday, August 9, 2019. The Superintendents of departments may admit later entries when this is for the benefit of all concerned.

Prospective exhibitors sending entries by mail must enclose the exhibitor pass and other fees.

4. ENTRY TAGS

Upon receipt of application with enclosed fees, the entry tags will be filled out specifying the department, entry number and class of the exhibit as received by the Secretary.

Care should be taken that the tags are securely attached before bringing or sending the article to the fair.

5. PLACING OF EXHIBITS

Exhibits shall be placed as directed by the members in charge. In the Domestic and Fine Arts Departments, a duplicate entry card or claim ticket will be retained by the exhibitor until the close of the Fair, when the claim ticket will be an order for the article corresponding in number.

No exhibit is to be removed before the designated time on the closing day of the fair.

The members designated as being in charge of the various departments shall have authority to regulate and determine the position, the arrangements, dimensions, etc. of all exhibits, signs and the like.

Tables, shelves, or other conveniences erected for exhibition of the regular entries cannot be used for advertising purposes. Arrangements must be made beforehand for space in which to make such a display.

No permanent markings on any structure or blacktop is permitted.

6. STOCK OWNERSHIP, PEDIGREES

All animals entered for premiums must be entered in the name of the bonafide owner.

Livestock exhibited and shown must be purebred and typical of the breed represented so far as body confirmation, color and other characteristics are concerned. The judge or member in charge reserves the right to disqualify any animal or animals not meeting these requirements. Evidence must be presented that animals exhibited as breeders are not barren. No awards will be made in instance of doubt.

7. HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

All livestock will be checked off the trailer by the Tuscarawas County Veterinary Academy. For further information, refer to 2018 Seasons/Ohio Livestock Health Exhibition Rules.

8. JUDGES

No person shall act as judge who is in any way interested in the exhibits he is to judge.

Judges in fruit, garden, farm crops, plants and flowers shall examine all entries and endeavor to correct so far as possible all mistakes in names as entered.

The judges' books shall be returned to the Secretary's office after completion of the judging.

Interference with the judges will not be tolerated.

No unworthy exhibits shall receive a reward, whether or not there is competition.

Errors in entering may be rectified at the discretion of the judges or members in charge.

No class will be considered filled unless there is competition for each prize.

9. PROTESTS

The decision of the judges, in all instances of disputed awards, shall be final.

10. REMOVAL OF EXHIBITS/LIVESTOCK

All exhibits must remain on the grounds until the designated time on the closing day of the fair. All animals must remain in the barn until dismissal times. Violation of this rule will forfeit premium and special awards. Dairy cattle dismissed at 3 p.m., beef cattle dismissed at 4 p.m. and all other livestock at 5 p.m.

11. PREMIUMS

Premium checks will be mailed after the fair. Any special awards shall be approved by the Board of Directors no later than September 1.
